Question	Answer
Does it have to be a parent, can it be a grandparent?	A grandparent is fine
Would I be able to pay for my son to also come on the trip?	Siblings are welcome to come, if they are in Year 3 + they can join the choir performance !!
option of attending, along with our family	Priority goes to children and a paremt/ sibling, however depending on the final numbers we can contact the Travel company to see if this would be possible
Will my child have to commit to every choir practice	We do expect your child to commit to every practice, however we understand if somethings pop up and they are not able to attend. It's important they let us know.
